Walk On The Wild Side By Nelson Algren

Wild Walk | Wild Center

Wild Walk takes us on a trail of bridges to the townships of the Adirondack Park. It's designed to transform the way we see into the natural world by offering up the perspectives of the wild nature. You Look Like An Animal. For most of us, a walk in the woods is a peaceful respite.

Walk on the Wild Side (Lou Reed song) - Wikipedia

“Walk on the Wild Side” is a song by Lou Reed from his second solo album, Transformer (1972). It was produced by David Bowie and Mick Ronson and released as a double A-side with “Perfect Day.” Known as a counterculture anthem, the song received wide radio-play and became Reed's biggest hit and signature success despite its complex use of non-sounding words, due to a monetary issue.
